

COMMISSIONER HOWARD

(THE CHIEF OF THE STAFF)

Winnipeg, April 5th to 7th.

SUNDAY, April 6th—11 a.m.: HOLINESS MEETING AT THE CITADEL

AFTERNOON AND EVENING MEETINGS AT THE

PANTAGE'S THEATRE

3 p.m.—DEDICATION OF CADETS. SHORT ADDRESS.

7 p.m.—SPECIAL SALVATION ADDRESS BY THE CHIEF

MONDAY, April 7th—OFFICERS' MEETING

TO BE CONDUCTED BY COMMISSIONER SOWTON

FRIDAY, April 4th—Holiness Meeting; Installation of Majors Sims, Tudge, Peacock, and Adjutant Carter.

SATURDAY, April 5th—3 p.m.: Opening of the "Sir Douglas Haig" Hostel.

8 p.m.: Special Meeting at All Corps, conducted by Special Officers.

MONDAY, April 7th—7.45 p.m.: Commissioning of Cadets

COMMISSIONER T. HENRY HOWARD

VANCOUVER—SUNDAY, APRIL 13th.

SALVATION MEETINGS ALL DAY—IN PANTAGE'S THEATRE

PARTICULARS LATER

WE ARE Looking For You

SONGS OF SALVATION

TAKE SALVATION

Tunes—Take Salvation, 170; Savior, like a Shepherd, 169; Song Book, 67.

Hark! the voice of Jesus calling—
"Come, ye guilty, come to Me;
I have red and peace to offer,
Rest, thou laboring one, for thee,
Take Salvation—
Take it now and happy be."

Life is found alone in Jesus;
Only there 'tis offered thee—
Offered without price or money;
'Tis the gift of God, sent free;
Take Salvation—
Take it now and happy be.

COMING EVENTS

COLONEL TURNER

(Chief Secretary)

Winnipeg—Sun., April 6th.
Winnipeg—Mon., April 7th. (Commissioning Cadets).
Selkirk—Sun., April 27th.

INVESTMENTS

Officers, Soldiers, or friends having money to invest could, with good advantage, lend it to the Army for use in the Salvation War. Loans are utilized strictly for the purpose of the War, and other equally assured capital, and a liberal rate of interest is paid for the use of the money. Withdrawal of money, or the amount of the loan, can be conveniently arranged without trouble or difficulty at any time. Names of investors are kept strictly private.

Application addressed to Commissioner Bowen, 202 Confederation Life Building, Winnipeg, will receive immediate attention. Further information will be given.

Salvation Army Hostels

WINNIPEG—Logan Avenue East, near Main Street

VANCOUVER—Gore Avenue (Naval and Military)

VICTORIA, B.C.—589 Johnston Street

PORT ARTHUR—219 Pearl Street

CALGARY—214 Ninth Avenue East

TORONTO—Corus King and Church Streets

KINGSTON—King and Clarence Streets

LONDON—York and Clarence Streets

QUEBEC—18 Palace Hill (Rest Room Only)

HALIFAX—People's Palace, 218-222 Argyle Street

ST. JOHN, N.B.—Prince William Street

CHATHAM, Ontario—Main Street

HAMILTON—King and Charles Streets

ARE OPEN TO ALL SERVICE MEN

ACTIVE OR RETURNED—IN OR OUT OF UNIFORM

BEDS, MEALS, AND REFRESHMENTS AT REASONABLE RATES

USE OF REST, CORRESPONDENCE, AND LOUNGE ROOMS FREE

THE WAR CRY

AND OFFICIAL GAZETTE OF THE SALVATION ARMY IN CANADA AND NEWFOUNDLAND.

International Headquarters:
101 Queen Victoria St., London, S.C.WILLIAM BOOTH, Founder.
BRAMWELL BOOTH, General.Canada West Headquarters: Confederation Life Bldg., Winnipeg.

No. 1,800 Price Five Cents

TORONTO, APRIL 12, 1919

Charles Sowton, Commissioner.

IN REMEMBRANCE OF PROMOTED COMRADES

Look out next week for records of the Vancouver, Yarmouth, Peckham, Day, Ted McMillan, and Richards, the Toronto Army League Council, conducted by Mrs. Commissioner Richards. Interview with Colonel Bates, report of the 10th
Regiment, 2nd Battalion, and other interesting

SPIRITUAL GROWTH

BY COMMISSIONER HOWARD

"They shall be like a watered garden, and like a spring whose waters fail not."—Isaiah 35:11
"Grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ."—2 Peter 3:18

(CONCLUDED FROM LAST WEEK)

Here, however, at the angle of His eye,
If I to Him in sore temptation fly, He'll keep me in the Shepherd's ways all day,
Safes and secure while sheltered 'neath
the Rock.

He'll keep me safe while at His feet I rest,
"Lest I be hurt, He'll keep me night and day;
He'll keep me and my foot shall no one take,
Though foes may mock, my faith they cannot shake.

He'll keep me from the snare they've laid for me,
From my wife's wiles I shall through Him be free;
He'll keep me from this sad world's every ill;
And lead me safely to His Holy Hill.

He'll keep me safe whenever I may go,
In perfect peace while fighting here
below;
He'll keep me on the rough and stony ways,
For all His saints He'll keep His Holy way.

He'll keep me on each morning I go out,
My hand in His I have no cause to doubt;
He'll keep me as I lay me down each night,
I will not fear—His ways are always right.

He'll keep me, so that I shall never fall
While I commit to Him my life, my all; He'll bring me to the place He has promised.

If, through my life, for Ilim and souls
I've dared.

—R. H. K.

HOW TO BE SAVED

To know you are saved is to be happy; to miss that knowledge is to be miserable. The people who wish for the assurance of salvation are many, but not every one finds it. Jesus Christ tasted death for every man. If any man—or woman, of course—will turn from sin, receive the witness of the Blood, and claim the witness of the Spirit, he shall know that he is born again. There may be much feeling or none at all, but there must be faith. The sinner must believe in the Saviour, must take up all of His word, and above all other hope or plan must step out on the promises of God. Do this and live! *****

SEARCHLIGHT

"If any man thirst let him come unto Me and drink." "He that cometh unto Me shall never hunger; him that cometh unto Me I will in no wise cast out." *****

Three Forms of Growth

It may help our understanding of this truth if we study carefully the process in the growth of a good tree. If there is satisfactory development, three things in the tree will be discovered; namely, growth in the root, growth in the trunk and branches, and growth in the form of flowers and fruit.

THE SALVATION SOLDIERS' ARMOY

THE PRACTICE OF HOLINESS

By ENSIGN MAJOR (St. John III. Corps)

"And Enoch walked with God."—Genesis 5:22

As we begin to study the great example of prayer, we naturally turn first of all to this inscription. Enoch has been described as the first mystic. But what is it to walk with God?

Does not this striking phrase denote a close and intimate fellowship, confined to precise and definite acts, but is one unbroken and continuous fellowship with the Eternal God? The practice of holiness in one's daily life may be considered by some as an impossibility, but when I think of Enoch, the example of the truth of Christ's own words, when He said "Abba Father, all things are possible to Thee," (Mark 14:36) and again "All things are possible to him that believeth," (Mark 9:23).

We not only see the power of God upon the life of Enoch, but we also see through His faith in the ability of God it was possible for Him to walk with God not for one year but for over three hundred years.

Enoch, we must remember, had no personal knowledge of the love of God, and lived in the days of the Patriarchs, before the coming of the Saviour.

An agnostic poet, some years back, in a hymn of God, said, "I have great compassion for you, O man, as the living presence in your hearts, you shall know what freedom is, and while you do your duty be above your duties as was Enoch."

THE BIBLE SPEAKS OF GOD'S SAINTS

as being in "the garden of the Lord," as grew with His right hand planted or growing from seed which He has sown, blossoming as the rose, fragrant as the honeysuckle and almond, and bringing forth the fruits of righteousness to the glory of His Name. But whether you look at your souls as a garden, from which evil plants are to be removed, and in which the plants of God's grace are to flourish instead, or regard yourselves as trees in God's garden, the ideas are always connected with growth, enlargement, and productivity.

LIFE A WATERED GARDEN

One of the sacred writers speaks of a section of God's people in trouble, and in danger of being wiped out, but reveals God's purpose for them in these words: "They shall yet again take root downward, and bear fruit upward." It is not difficult to grasp the principle illustrated; we may cultivate a religion with the result of other lives; our own will be superficial and shallow, and like the seed in the parable, with no depth of earth, and having little root, will ultimately become dried up.

Roots of Our Religion

This really means growth in secret, growth out of sight, and reminds us of the beautiful words of Jesus: "When thou prayest enter into thy closet; and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall Himself reward thee openly." There are many kinds of growth. It fits in with the Parable of the Vine and the Branches! Of the branch which abides in the Vine He says that when purged it shall experience a certain progression.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

Observe the order, "bear fruit—more fruit—much fruit," and "fruit which shall remain." Let us ask ourselves to which of these stages we have attained, and go on earnestly to a full fruitfulness.

LATEST NEWS of SALVATION FIGHTING ON THE FIELD.

GOOD YEAR'S RECORD

Over Two Hundred Seekers at Halifax I. Citadel the spiritual work of the Corps was not neglected, and in the meetings which were held since March, 1918, over two hundred persons professed conversion and thirty Soldiers were added to the Roll.

DEPUTY BANDMASTER GASCOGNE
Who has recently been appointed to this position at Regis. He is an energetic worker who has done much good service in the Corps.

On Sunday, March 16th, Major and Mrs. Grichton conducted the dedication services. Splendid crowds attended all day, and at night every available seat was filled. The Hall at night was filled, every seat in the gallery being occupied. Nine souls surrendered in the prayer meeting, being a volunteer from the guard.

On Monday night the Major conducted a great United Demonstration in the Citadel.

The meetings for the week-end and all day services were conducted by Adjutant and Mrs. Hargrave, and the attendance was good. The Hall at night was filled, every seat in the gallery being occupied. Nine souls surrendered in the prayer meeting, being a volunteer from the guard.

On Monday night the Major conducted a great United Demonstration in the Citadel.

The meetings for the week-end and all day services were conducted by Adjutant and Mrs. Hargrave, and the attendance was good. The Hall at night was filled, every seat in the gallery being occupied. Nine souls surrendered in the prayer meeting, being a volunteer from the guard.

LANSDOWNE IS GROWING

Divisional Commander Congratulates Corps on Thriving Young People's Work

The Young People's Annual at Lansdowne, Ontario, Corps was conducted by Lieutenant-Colonel and Mrs. Gtway on Sunday, March 15th. The Coloued pointed out that a prosperous growing Corps is one which has a strong Junior work and congratulated the Officers and Young People's Workers on progress made in this direction during the past year. Statistics read showed that the attendance at Company meetings has grown from 50 to 75 and the average weekly income has increased from $100 to $125. The target to aim at for the coming year was set by the Colonel and efforts will be made to increase the attendance to 100 and to get thirty names on the Grade Roll.

On Friday, a very good Demonstration was given by the Student and Young People's Workers. Ensign Dray presided and at the conclusion gave out forty-five prizes.

A MIDNIGHT MARCH

FAREWELL AND WELCOME

In Honour of Returned Deputy Bandmaster of Montreal II.—Many Visitors to Corps

We have recently welcomed as Soldiers of Montreal II. Corps, Captain and Mrs. Pryde, and Adjutant and Mrs. McGillivray recently visited us and gave an interesting talk on his work with the boys overseas.

On March 16th, we welcomed home Bandmaster Fred Murry, and on the following Tuesday, a good number of Soldiers, including the Adjutant and several still midnight to parade home. Deputy Bandmaster Jackon.

His welcome service was held in the Citadel on Thursday, being conducted by Adjutant Cavenagh. The building was well filled and every one was delighted to see him and to find him with as great a zest for God and the Army as ever.

On March 10th and 11th we had with us, Adjutant Hodgeson. A good, bright, breezy Salvation meeting was held on the Monday, with a number of Life-Saving Guards taking part. On the Tuesday evening a nice supper had been prepared by Mrs. Hodgeson and the Leader. Guard work was taken up and every one taken the visit of our Comrades.

The following Thursday our Young People's Annual was held. A fine crowd was present. Over one hundred persons were present.

On Saturday, March 20th, Adjutant McLean and Captain Haywood with the Band and Singers from Verdun paid us a visit, and a fine programme of music, songs, recitations, etc. was given.—I. C.

LETHBRIDGE BAND

Visits Macleod and Takes Part in Helpful Sunday Services

On March 23rd the Lethbridge Band paid us a visit. Macleod, the Band master, twenty-four of whom are women, Adjutant Hamilton accompanied the Band.

The Holiness meeting was one filled with God's presence. Adjutant Hamilton gave a searching address and one soul sought Salvation.

The former service, indeed, was a "musical blitz." Many items being rendered by Bandmaster under the leadership of Bandmaster Tickner. Mr. Davis of Macleod acted as chairman.

Winnipeg III.

On March 23rd the Lethbridge Band paid us a visit. Macleod, the Band master, twenty-four of whom are women, Adjutant Hamilton accompanied the Band.

The Holiness meeting was one filled with God's presence. Adjutant Hamilton gave a searching address and one soul sought Salvation.

whose joint contributions to our Soldiers' Army are for the last three months have been a source of help and blessing to many of our readers.

Adjutant and Mrs. McDonald, London I.

whose joint contributions to our Soldiers' Army are for the last three months have been a source of help and blessing to many of our readers.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Is a Success at Gananoque as Mayor Presides at the Meeting.

A most pleasing social evening was enjoyed at Gananoque on Sunday, March 10th, the occasion being the birthday of Mrs. C. G. Thompson. Invitations had been sent out to many friends, enclosed with which was a little sack and a request to bring it along with them for each year of party's age. This novel feature was readily taken.

MR. GRELLEMAN MEATHUR

The Chairman of the Red Relief Fund at Gananoque, P.E.I. The interview was conducted at the meeting.

and the sum of $40 was realized. Mayor Wilson, who is a warm friend of the Army, presided at the meeting and congratulated the people on having so many such fine officers as Captain and Mrs. Thompson.

The programme was a splendid one, including selections by Capt. Cadet Cross, Bros. Lloyd and Paul, and the action songs of eleven Comrades: recitation by Mrs. Ensign Laurie; instrumental trio, Lloyd and Purser; vocal solo, Captain Thompson; instrumental trio, Corps Cadet Cross, and Captain and Mrs. Thompson.

The programme was a splendid one, including selections by Capt. Cadet Cross, Bros. Lloyd and Paul, and the action songs of eleven Comrades: recitation by Mrs. Ensign Laurie; instrumental trio, Lloyd and Purser; vocal solo, Captain Thompson; instrumental trio, Corps Cadet Cross, and Captain and Mrs. Thompson.

NINE GET CLEANSED

Former "Pop Shop" Becomes "Glory Shop" at Indian Head

Captain and Mrs. Smith have been leading us on an Indian Head for the last ten months and the work is progressing well. In September last we moved into a Hall which had formerly been a "Pop Shop" and a soft drink factory. It is now a "Glory Shop."

On the opening of the new Hall there were but six soldiers on the roll. At present we have twenty and a full number of converts who give good promise.

On Sunday, March 9th, the Captain presided at a Holiness service and nine persons sang the blessing of a clean heart as a result.

Untruths have been confessed and wrongs have been righted and all articles returned.

On Saturday, March 10th, he had a 1918-19

COLINNESS CAMPAIGN

Concluded With Glorious Results at Windsor (Ont.)—Eighty-Eight Seekers for Sanctification and Salvation—Eighteen Volunteers For Officership

The period from March 8th to 15th will long be remembered by the Comrades of the Windsor (Ont.) Corps, for during this time Captain and Mrs. Taylor assisted by Mrs. Falkner conducted the campaign for "Revival of Holiness" and the results are such that a constant flow of praise ascends to Almighty God for His gracious visitation.

The first break came on Sunday morning, March 9th, when two Comrades renewed their consecration and claimed the blessing of Sanctification, and from that moment the blessed, halloving and mallow presence of the Holy Spirit seemed to pervade all the services and every one there were from two to seventy seekers totalling some eighty-eight in all for the campaign.

Some came for Salvation, but the majority were for the blessing of Sanctification. It was a veritable breaking up of a hollow ground, and the hills of holiness were growing cold, to whom service was a hard duty, and in many cases was no longer a part of their life.

During these meetings new light and blessing have been received and differences have been removed from the ranks of the Spiritualists.

It is now everywhere manifest.

From every department of the corps seekers have rushed to the "Glory Seat" and God has fulfilled His promise and met them there.

The band instruments were laid aside for all the eight days.

Various bands and Singers sang well and rendered valuable assistance in the singing.

Mr. Ford Hendricksen (who is conducting a Mission in the city) was present.

It is a typical instance of the spirit employed by the Ensign to make things go.

He is an Officer who has signature and is a highly creditable product of the Young People's work.

He owes much to his early training in Army principles and warfare, and as an Adjutant in the Canadian Field, which combined with heroic spirit, which combined with heroic spirit, which makes for success in the work of the Organization.

WELCOME HOME SUPPER

Given to Returned Men and Their Wives and Families at Chester (Toronto) Corp

Following out the policy of the Army for the past few years, Reconstruction, and through the visitation of the District Visitor, Sister Mrs. White, and the Comrades of the Corps who have spent many hours in visitation and welcoming the Canadian heroes who are returning from the war, a Welcome Home Supper and Social was given at the Chester Citadel on Monday evening, March 31st. One hundred and ten returned men and their wives and children sat down to supper prepared by the Home League and the Corps.

Speeches of welcome were made by Lieutenant-Colonel Bell, Major Southall, Sergeant-Major Cresswell, Sergeant-Major Barsby, Deputy

Bandmaster Simmance, Home

League, Treasurer Mrs. T. Green-

Frank, and the Corps Officer, Ensign

Frank Ham.

After the supper, the inhabitants of the town were greatly startled to see a man dressed up to represent the devil horns, tail and all, go sauntering down the main street with a box

under his arm and a crowd of men and boys were seen following this strange figure, wondering whether he had escaped from an asylum or had some kind of goods to advertise.

He had recently gone to India, and was seen following the ring hurdlers at the Salvationists.

The crowd grew in numbers each moment. Suddenly the "devil" darted at the Lieutenant and dealt him a sharp blow on the head.

"Hi there, you fellows," called the Lieutenant.

"Clarke, stop your tricks and give us a chance for a little rest."

The two Officers in the rig protested the intruder and when he declared that someone had been pouring something over his face while he slept.

An investigation revealed the fact that the jar of maple syrup had got cracked through the rock road and that the sticky contents were oozing out.

"If you'd had your mouth open now all that good syrup wouldn't have been wasted," said Ham, as he helped his brother Officer scrape off the sticky substance.

The crowd swarmed after the two

in high glee.

At the door of the Hall the Lieutenant turned and addressed them.

"Dear friends," he said, "tonight

we are having a special service

meeting in the Hall's Treasury Box.

We invite you to come to all I am sure you will all be greatly interested."

"The crowd swarmed after the two

in high glee.

At the door of the Hall the Lieutenant turned and addressed them.

"Dear friends," he said, "tonight

we are having a special service

meeting in the Hall's Treasury Box.

We invite you to come to all I am sure you will all be greatly interested."

"The crowd swarmed after the two

in high glee.

At the door of the Hall the Lieutenant turned and addressed them.

"Dear friends," he said, "tonight

we are having a special service

meeting in the Hall's Treasury Box.

We invite you to come to all I am sure you will all be greatly interested."

"The crowd swarmed after the two

in high glee.

At the door of the Hall the Lieutenant turned and addressed them.

"Dear friends," he said, "tonight

we are having a special service

meeting in the Hall's Treasury Box.

We invite you to come to all I am sure you will all be greatly interested."

"The crowd swarmed after the two

in high glee.

At the door of the Hall the Lieutenant turned and addressed them.

"Dear friends," he said, "tonight

we are having a special service

meeting in the Hall's Treasury Box.

We invite you to come to all I am sure you will all be greatly interested."

"The crowd swarmed after the two

in high glee.

At the door of the Hall the Lieutenant turned and addressed them.

"Dear friends," he said, "tonight

we are having a special service

meeting in the Hall's Treasury Box.

We invite you to come to all I am sure you will all be greatly interested."

"The crowd swarmed after the two

in high glee.

At the door of the Hall the Lieutenant turned and addressed them.

"Dear friends," he said, "tonight

we are having a special service

meeting in the Hall's Treasury Box.

We invite you to come to all I am sure you will all be greatly interested."

"The crowd swarmed after the two

in high glee.

At the door of the Hall the Lieutenant turned and addressed them.

"Dear friends," he said, "tonight

we are having a special service

meeting in the Hall's Treasury Box.

We invite you to come to all I am sure you will all be greatly interested."

"The crowd swarmed after the two

in high glee.

At the door of the Hall the Lieutenant turned and addressed them.

"Dear friends," he said, "tonight

we are having a special service

meeting in the Hall's Treasury Box.

We invite you to come to all I am sure you will all be greatly interested."

"The crowd swarmed after the two

in high glee.

At the door of the Hall the Lieutenant turned and addressed them.

"Dear friends," he said, "tonight

we are having a special service

meeting in the Hall's Treasury Box.

We invite you to come to all I am sure you will all be greatly interested."

"The crowd swarmed after the two

in high glee.

At the door of the Hall the Lieutenant turned and addressed them.

"Dear friends," he said, "tonight

we are having a special service

meeting in the Hall's Treasury Box.

We invite you to come to all I am sure you will all be greatly interested."

"The crowd swarmed after the two

in high glee.

At the door of the Hall the Lieutenant turned and addressed them.

"Dear friends," he said, "tonight

we are having a special service

meeting in the Hall's Treasury Box.

We invite you to come to all I am sure you will all be greatly interested."

"The crowd swarmed after the two

in high glee.

At the door of the Hall the Lieutenant turned and addressed them.

"Dear friends," he said, "tonight

we are having a special service

meeting in the Hall's Treasury Box.

We invite you to come to all I am sure you will all be greatly interested."

"The crowd swarmed after the two

in high glee.

At the door of the Hall the Lieutenant turned and addressed them.

"Dear friends," he said, "tonight

we are having a special service

meeting in the Hall's Treasury Box.

We invite you to come to all I am sure you will all be greatly interested."

"The crowd swarmed after the two

in high glee.

At the door of the Hall the Lieutenant turned and addressed them.

"Dear friends," he said, "tonight

we are having a special service

meeting in the Hall's Treasury Box.

We invite you to come to all I am sure you will all be greatly interested."

"The crowd swarmed after the two

in high glee.

At the door of the Hall the Lieutenant turned and addressed them.

"Dear friends," he said, "tonight

we are having a special service

meeting in the Hall's Treasury Box.

We invite you to come to all I am sure you will all be greatly interested."

"The crowd swarmed after the two

Woman's Work Days and Warfare.

CARING FOR FRIENDLESS

Western Women's Social Secretary Relates Instances of Good Works Done by Army

The Annual Social meeting at Calgary was conducted on Thursday, March 20, by Mrs. Brigadier Potter and Major Sims. A splendid crowd gathered and a most interesting programme was given.

Major Captain Robert McLean, gave a brief account of the work done by the Men's Social Department in the city during the past year and Major Sims gave a farewell address.

Mrs. Brigadier Potter, in soul-stirring words, then gave a short report of the Women's Social Department. This did not give an index of work done. At Vancouver, the mother of seven children died. The father soon got discouraged and committed suicide. All the children, with the exception of a two-year-old girl, were taken in and cared for by friends. This girl was left homeless and friendless until the Army became acquainted with her circumstances, and she is now under their care. At Winnipeg, during a heavy snow storm, a private in the Army, Neilsen, there was a thunder by the window and as a flash of lightning lit up the yard beneath the window, she thought she saw a bundle lying by the garland faint. Then she thought she heard a faint cry. On investigation, a bundle of lightning illuminated the sky, she saw what appeared to be a baby lying there in the rain. She called a nurse and the nurse went down and found a tiny infant wrapped only in a blanket. The nurse said it was several months old and was doing fine under the Army's care there.

Then followed the commissioning of the League of Mercy members.

ANNUAL GATHERING

Of the Toronto Industrial Corps
Home League—An Enjoyable Programme

On Thursday evening a very interesting company gathered at 25 Augusta Avenue, Toronto, for the Industrial Corps' Annual Home League Gathering. We do not hesitate to say that while this meeting was larger Home Leagues in the city there is no happier crowd than ours.

We were sorry that Mrs. Commissioner Richards could not represent all her usual custom or a majority of members, but were connected with the Councils.

The chairman, Commandant Thompson, introduced Adjutant White to the members and by proxy Adjutant Mrs. McLean who was on her way to the city.

A very good programme was given by the officers, those taking part including Adjutant Maisy, Mrs. Lehman, the two daughters of Brigadier and Mrs. Jennings, Captain McLean, and Adjutant Johnson.

Mr. Captain Muat and also Commandant Thompson gave a splendid account of the work done during the year.

Mrs. Commandant McLean was

After the announcement was made of the standing of the League, which was very gratifying, the party sat down to supper, the ceiling up of which is a great credit to all concerned.

HOME LEAGUE COUNCIL

Conducted by Mrs. Commissioner Richards in Toronto—Chaplains Tell of Boys' Appreciation of Gifts Sent Overseas

The woman Officers attending the Toronto gathering, together with a large number of Home League Members of the City Corps, enjoyed a meeting all to themselves on the Tuesday afternoon. It was led by Mrs. Commissioner Richards, who was supported by Mrs. Colonel

"Canada will be ever so much better if we keep it free from the 'bug'." She said, "so let us all do our best to fight this great enemy." The clapping which followed demonstrated that the Salvation Army were heart and soul in such a fight.

Mrs. Richards then spoke words of comfort to any present who had lost loved ones in the war and urged them to seek consolation in God's promises.

After paying a warm tribute to the work of our Army Chaplains, Mrs. Richards then called on Major (Chaplain-Captain) McGillivray to speak.

Very Good Name

The Major warmly thanked all who had anything to do with sending socks to him in England for him to distribute to the boys. "Through your hard work and generosity," he said, "I became known as the Padre who kept the boys from getting cold feet."

He went on to explain why it was that the boys needed so many socks and other comforts and how they appreciated what the folks back home had done for them. "The Home League has a splendid claim to fame," he said, "in that they have given us a great many socks."

A wave of praise was then given by Mrs. Richards to the Salvation Army Soldiers and friends who have dedicated themselves to many things in order to send comforts to the boys overseas.

"We are now going to let you know a few things with the boys over there," she said, "how much they appreciated the gifts sent to them," and she called on Chaplain Captain Steele to speak.

He thanked God for League

"Now is the time for us to get out and roll up our sleeves and do work of this sort," concluded Mrs. Commissioner Richards.

A wave of praise was then given by Mrs. Richards to the Salvation Army Soldiers and friends who have dedicated themselves to many things in order to send comforts to the boys overseas.

"We are now going to let you know a few things with the boys over there," she said, "how much they appreciated the gifts sent to them," and she called on Chaplain Captain Steele to speak.

Thanked God for League

"Very often when I am in my dugout in France," said the Captain, "I thank God for the wonderful things they are doing. To truly realize how much the boys appreciated a dry pair of socks you have to be a dry pair of socks from the trenches, others perhaps, than have been standing in water for days."

He then gave a very interesting description of the journey of a pair of socks from a Corps in Canada to the front in France, giving the Captain a thrill. "We are thankful to the Home League in Canada and I thank God for the wonderful work they are doing. To truly realize how much the boys appreciated a dry pair of socks you have to be a dry pair of socks from the trenches, others perhaps, than have been standing in water for days."

"The number of socks we have received from the Leagues in Canada to the front in France, gives us a real sense of what the League is doing. One would have thought from the way Mrs. Chandler urged on her workers that the winning of war depended on the number of socks sent to the boys. And perhaps it did, but this is the first time I have heard of it. We did a good job to do it with, for we have had from Major McGillivray the socks played an important part in keeping the men cheerful and contented."

Put Heart in Work

Mrs. Chandler said that the credit for what had been accomplished was due to the devoted Corps Officers of the Division, who had put heart and soul into the work and inspired the League members to do their best.

"But not only have we worked for the boys overseas," she said,

she added.

VOLUNTEERS ARE WANTED!

For Service as Officers and Nurses in Hospitals and Various Institutions

In order to carry on the immediate and great expansion of the work of the hospitals and institutions of the Salvation Army, the following are the highest medical requirements: Surgeon, given under conditions which satisfy the requirements of the Canadian Medical Association; Surgeon, given under the conditions of the Salvation Army Hospitals are everywhere required. The services of real usefulness, should make inquiries of the Canadian Division, Canadian Salvation Army Headquarters, Albert Street, Toronto, or 230 Carrefour Street, Winnipeg.

Mrs. Commissioner Richards gratefully acknowledge the receipt of the following hospitals and institutions of the Canadian Division, given under conditions which satisfy the requirements of the Canadian Medical Association: Belleville Home League, Peterborough, Brockville Red Cross Sewing Circle of the Canadian Salvation Army, and Lakewood Patriotic League, Clarendon, Ont. recently nine pairs socks and seven quilted

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

April 12, 1919

THE WAR CRY

ALL UNDER THE BLOOD & FIRE FLAG

CHINA

WELCOME TO CADETS—CHINESE POLICEMEN CONVERTED

From Right to Love

Commissioner Jeffries recently presided at a tea and welcome meeting to the new Cadets in Peking-West, China. A fine reception was given by Adjutant and Mrs. Pomeroy who took an important part in the subsequent Salvation meeting. The testimonies of the Cadets from various towns of North China made a great impression. Five men volunteers joined the front.

Brother Sibley had been visiting a number of the principal Corps in North China, and reports encouragingly of the results and prospects for the future. Despite cold weather there were excellent attendances at the various meetings. Among the captives at Kuan had been two policemen who had been regularly attending the Hall.

In an interesting article specially contributed to the New Zealand "War Cry," Adjutant N. Norton writes as follows: "When we left Tung Chow the people—the women and children—were very frightened of us; they would run away when they saw us coming, and call out the 'Yang kuei li'—'the foreign devils are coming.' Now they are beginning to trust us, we help them, and bring along their sick people. We have decorated up several. As we go down the streets now we often hear the people singing one of the clirnches we sing in our meetings. 'Come follow, follow, follow! I will tell you 'Gut shui jui'—the follow Jesus song.' What a change from being called 'foreign devils,' is it not?"

He then gave a very interesting description of the journey of a pair of socks from a Corps in Canada to the front in France, giving the Captain a thrill. "We are thankful to the Home League in Canada and I thank God for the wonderful work they are doing. To truly realize how much the boys appreciated a dry pair of socks you have to be a dry pair of socks from the trenches, others perhaps, than have been standing in water for days."

He then gave a very interesting description of the journey of a pair of socks from a Corps in Canada to the front in France, giving the Captain a thrill. "We are thankful to the Home League in Canada and I thank God for the wonderful work they are doing. To truly realize how much the boys appreciated a dry pair of socks you have to be a dry pair of socks from the trenches, others perhaps, than have been standing in water for days."

"The number of socks we have received from the Leagues in Canada to the front in France, gives us a real sense of what the League is doing. One would have thought from the way Mrs. Chandler urged on her workers that the winning of war depended on the number of socks sent to the boys. And perhaps it did, but this is the first time I have heard of it. We did a good job to do it with, for we have had from Major McGillivray the socks played an important part in keeping the men cheerful and contented."

"But not only have we worked for the boys overseas," she said,

she added.

SALVATION WORK IN EGYPT

DUTCH INDIES

Activities of Salvationists on Military Service—Meetings Held at Helipolis and Alexandria—An Offering for the Children

ANOTHER new War Cry has now been added to the large number of Army publications. It is titled "Egypt" in English and "Al Mamlakat" in Arabic. It is given to the Military Authorities. The first number that has reached us contains some very interesting news of the activities of the organization to which they belong. An officer, who was recently attracted to one of the services, expressed his intense interest and surprise, occasioned by the cheerful atmosphere and lively singing in Arabic and English.

fashion and practices of the organization to which they belong. An officer, who was recently attracted to one of the services, expressed his intense interest and surprise, occasioned by the cheerful atmosphere and lively singing in Arabic and English.

Commissioner Jeffries recently presided at a tea and welcome meeting to the new Cadets in Peking-West, China. A fine reception was given by Adjutant and Mrs. Pomeroy who took an important part in the subsequent Salvation meeting. The testimonies of the Cadets from various towns of North China made a great impression. Five men volunteers joined the front.

Brother Sibley had been visiting a number of the principal Corps in North China, and reports encouragingly of the results and prospects for the future. Despite cold weather there were excellent attendances at the various meetings. Among the captives at Kuan had been two policemen who had been regularly attending the Hall.

In an interesting article specially contributed to the New Zealand "War Cry," Adjutant N. Norton writes as follows: "When we left Tung Chow the people—the women and children—were very frightened of us; they would run away when they saw us coming, and call out the 'Yang kuei li'—'the foreign devils are coming.' Now they are beginning to trust us, we help them, and bring along their sick people. We have decorated up several. As we go down the streets now we often hear the people singing one of the clirnches we sing in our meetings. 'Come follow, follow, follow! I will tell you 'Gut shui jui'—the follow Jesus song.' What a change from being called 'foreign devils,' is it not?"

He then gave a very interesting description of the journey of a pair of socks from a Corps in Canada to the front in France, giving the Captain a thrill. "We are thankful to the Home League in Canada and I thank God for the wonderful work they are doing. To truly realize how much the boys appreciated a dry pair of socks you have to be a dry pair of socks from the trenches, others perhaps, than have been standing in water for days."

He then gave a very interesting description of the journey of a pair of socks from a Corps in Canada to the front in France, giving the Captain a thrill. "We are thankful to the Home League in Canada and I thank God for the wonderful work they are doing. To truly realize how much the boys appreciated a dry pair of socks you have to be a dry pair of socks from the trenches, others perhaps, than have been standing in water for days."

"The number of socks we have received from the Leagues in Canada to the front in France, gives us a real sense of what the League is doing. One would have thought from the way Mrs. Chandler urged on her workers that the winning of war depended on the number of socks sent to the boys. And perhaps it did, but this is the first time I have heard of it. We did a good job to do it with, for we have had from Major McGillivray the socks played an important part in keeping the men cheerful and contented."

"But not only have we worked for the boys overseas," she said,

she added.

Commissioner Jeffries recently presided at a tea and welcome meeting to the new Cadets in Peking-West, China. A fine reception was given by Adjutant and Mrs. Pomeroy who took an important part in the subsequent Salvation meeting. The testimonies of the Cadets from various towns of North China made a great impression. Five men volunteers joined the front.

Brother Sibley had been visiting a number of the principal Corps in North China, and reports encouragingly of the results and prospects for the future. Despite cold weather there were excellent attendances at the various meetings. Among the captives at Kuan had been two policemen who had been regularly attending the Hall.

In an interesting article specially contributed to the New Zealand "War Cry," Adjutant N. Norton writes as follows: "When we left Tung Chow the people—the women and children—were very frightened of us; they would run away when they saw us coming, and call out the 'Yang kuei li'—'the foreign devils are coming.' Now they are beginning to trust us, we help them, and bring along their sick people. We have decorated up several. As we go down the streets now we often hear the people singing one of the clirnches we sing in our meetings. 'Come follow, follow, follow! I will tell you 'Gut shui jui'—the follow Jesus song.' What a change from being called 'foreign devils,' is it not?"

He then gave a very interesting description of the journey of a pair of socks from a Corps in Canada to the front in France, giving the Captain a thrill. "We are thankful to the Home League in Canada and I thank God for the wonderful work they are doing. To truly realize how much the boys appreciated a dry pair of socks you have to be a dry pair of socks from the trenches, others perhaps, than have been standing in water for days."

He then gave a very interesting description of the journey of a pair of socks from a Corps in Canada to the front in France, giving the Captain a thrill. "We are thankful to the Home League in Canada and I thank God for the wonderful work they are doing. To truly realize how much the boys appreciated a dry pair of socks you have to be a dry pair of socks from the trenches, others perhaps, than have been standing in water for days."

"The number of socks we have received from the Leagues in Canada to the front in France, gives us a real sense of what the League is doing. One would have thought from the way Mrs. Chandler urged on her workers that the winning of war depended on the number of socks sent to the boys. And perhaps it did, but this is the first time I have heard of it. We did a good job to do it with, for we have had from Major McGillivray the socks played an important part in keeping the men cheerful and contented."

"But not only have we worked for the boys overseas," she said,

she added.

Commissioner Jeffries recently presided at a tea and welcome meeting to the new Cadets in Peking-West, China. A fine reception was given by Adjutant and Mrs. Pomeroy who took an important part in the subsequent Salvation meeting. The testimonies of the Cadets from various towns of North China made a great impression. Five men volunteers joined the front.

Brother Sibley had been visiting a number of the principal Corps in North China, and reports encouragingly of the results and prospects for the future. Despite cold weather there were excellent attendances at the various meetings. Among the captives at Kuan had been two policemen who had been regularly attending the Hall.

In an interesting article specially contributed to the New Zealand "War Cry," Adjutant N. Norton writes as follows: "When we left Tung Chow the people—the women and children—were very frightened of us; they would run away when they saw us coming, and call out the 'Yang kuei li'—'the foreign devils are coming.' Now they are beginning to trust us, we help them, and bring along their sick people. We have decorated up several. As we go down the streets now we often hear the people singing one of the clirnches we sing in our meetings. 'Come follow, follow, follow! I will tell you 'Gut shui jui'—the follow Jesus song.' What a change from being called 'foreign devils,' is it not?"

He then gave a very interesting description of the journey of a pair of socks from a Corps in Canada to the front in France, giving the Captain a thrill. "We are thankful to the Home League in Canada and I thank God for the wonderful work they are doing. To truly realize how much the boys appreciated a dry pair of socks you have to be a dry pair of socks from the trenches, others perhaps, than have been standing in water for days."

He then gave a very interesting description of the journey of a pair of socks from a Corps in Canada to the front in France, giving the Captain a thrill. "We are thankful to the Home League in Canada and I thank God for the wonderful work they are doing. To truly realize how much the boys appreciated a dry pair of socks you have to be a dry pair of socks from the trenches, others perhaps, than have been standing in water for days."

"The number of socks we have received from the Leagues in Canada to the front in France, gives us a real sense of what the League is doing. One would have thought from the way Mrs. Chandler urged on her workers that the winning of war depended on the number of socks sent to the boys. And perhaps it did, but this is the first time I have heard of it. We did a good job to do it with, for we have had from Major McGillivray the socks played an important part in keeping the men cheerful and contented."

"But not only have we worked for the boys overseas," she said,

she added.

Commissioner Jeffries recently presided at a tea and welcome meeting to the new Cadets in Peking-West, China. A fine reception was given by Adjutant and Mrs. Pomeroy who took an important part in the subsequent Salvation meeting. The testimonies of the Cadets from various towns of North China made a great impression. Five men volunteers joined the front.

Brother Sibley had been visiting a number of the principal Corps in North China, and reports encouragingly of the results and prospects for the future. Despite cold weather there were excellent attendances at the various meetings. Among the captives at Kuan had been two policemen who had been regularly attending the Hall.

In an interesting article specially contributed to the New Zealand "War Cry," Adjutant N. Norton writes as follows: "When we left Tung Chow the people—the women and children—were very frightened of us; they would run away when they saw us coming, and call out the 'Yang kuei li'—'the foreign devils are coming.' Now they are beginning to trust us, we help them, and bring along their sick people. We have decorated up several. As we go down the streets now we often hear the people singing one of the clirnches we sing in our meetings. 'Come follow, follow, follow! I will tell you 'Gut shui jui'—the follow Jesus song.' What a change from being called 'foreign devils,' is it not?"

He then gave a very interesting description of the journey of a pair of socks from a Corps in Canada to the front in France, giving the Captain a thrill. "We are thankful to the Home League in Canada and I thank God for the wonderful work they are doing. To truly realize how much the boys appreciated a dry pair of socks you have to be a dry pair of socks from the trenches, others perhaps, than have been standing in water for days."

He then gave a very interesting description of the journey of a pair of socks from a Corps in Canada to the front in France, giving the Captain a thrill. "We are thankful to the Home League in Canada and I thank God for the wonderful work they are doing. To truly realize how much the boys appreciated a dry pair of socks you have to be a dry pair of socks from the trenches, others perhaps, than have been standing in water for days."

"The number of socks we have received from the Leagues in Canada to the front in France, gives us a real sense of what the League is doing. One would have thought from the way Mrs. Chandler urged on her workers that the winning of war depended on the number of socks sent to the boys. And perhaps it did, but this is the first time I have heard of it. We did a good job to do it with, for we have had from Major McGillivray the socks played an important part in keeping the men cheerful and contented."

"But not only have we worked for the boys overseas," she said,

she added.

Commissioner Jeffries recently presided at a tea and welcome meeting to the new Cadets in Peking-West, China. A fine reception was given by Adjutant and Mrs. Pomeroy who took an important part in the subsequent Salvation meeting. The testimonies of the Cadets from various towns of North China made a great impression. Five men volunteers joined the front.

Brother Sibley had been visiting a number of the principal Corps in North China, and reports encouragingly of the results and prospects for the future. Despite cold weather there were excellent attendances at the various meetings. Among the captives at Kuan had been two policemen who had been regularly attending the Hall.

In an interesting article specially contributed to the New Zealand "War Cry," Adjutant N. Norton writes as follows: "When we left Tung Chow the people—the women and children—were very frightened of us; they would run away when they saw us coming, and call out the 'Yang kuei li'—'the foreign devils are coming.' Now they are beginning to trust us, we help them, and bring along their sick people. We have decorated up several. As we go down the streets now we often hear the people singing one of the clirnches we sing in our meetings. 'Come follow, follow, follow! I will tell you 'Gut shui jui'—the follow Jesus song.' What a change from being called 'foreign devils,' is it not?"

He then gave a very interesting description of the journey of a pair of socks from a Corps in Canada to the front in France, giving the Captain a thrill. "We are thankful to the Home League in Canada and I thank God for the wonderful work they are doing. To truly realize how much the boys appreciated a dry pair of socks you have to be a dry pair of socks from the trenches, others perhaps, than have been standing in water for days."

He then gave a very interesting description of the journey of a pair of socks from a Corps in Canada to the front in France, giving the Captain a thrill. "We are thankful to the Home League in Canada and I thank God for the wonderful work they are doing. To truly realize how much the boys appreciated a dry pair of socks you have to be a dry pair of socks from the trenches, others perhaps, than have been standing in water for days."

"The number of socks we have received from the Leagues in Canada to the front in France, gives us a real sense of what the League is doing. One would have thought from the way Mrs. Chandler urged on her workers that the winning of war depended on the number of socks sent to the boys. And perhaps it did, but this is the first time I have heard of it. We did a good job to do it with, for we have had from Major McGillivray the socks played an important part in keeping the men cheerful and contented."

"But not only have we worked for the boys overseas," she said,

she added.

Commissioner Jeffries recently presided at a tea and welcome meeting to the new Cadets in Peking-West, China. A fine reception was given by Adjutant and Mrs. Pomeroy who took an important part in the subsequent Salvation meeting. The testimonies of the Cadets from various towns of North China made a great impression. Five men volunteers joined the front.

Brother Sibley had been visiting a number of the principal Corps in North China, and reports encouragingly of the results and prospects for the future. Despite cold weather there were excellent attendances at the various meetings. Among the captives at Kuan had been two policemen who had been regularly attending the Hall.

In an interesting article specially contributed to the New Zealand "War Cry," Adjutant N. Norton writes as follows: "When we left Tung Chow the people—the women and children—were very frightened of us; they would run away when they saw us coming, and call out the 'Yang kuei li'—'the foreign devils are coming.' Now they are beginning to trust us, we help them, and bring along their sick people. We have decorated up several. As we go down the streets now we often hear the people singing one of the clirnches we sing in our meetings. 'Come follow, follow, follow! I will tell you 'Gut shui jui'—the follow Jesus song.' What a change from being called 'foreign devils,' is it not?"

He then gave a very interesting description of the journey of a pair of socks from a Corps in Canada to the front in France, giving the Captain a thrill. "We are thankful to the Home League in Canada and I thank God for the wonderful work they are doing. To truly realize how much the boys appreciated a dry pair of socks you have to be a dry pair of socks from the trenches, others perhaps, than have been standing in water for days."

He then gave a very interesting description of the journey of a pair of socks from a Corps in Canada to the front in France, giving the Captain a thrill. "We are thankful to the Home League in Canada and I thank God for the wonderful work they are doing. To truly realize how much the boys appreciated a dry pair of socks you have to be a dry pair of socks from the trenches, others perhaps, than have been standing in water for days."

"The number of socks we have received from the Leagues in Canada to the front in France, gives us a real sense of what the League is doing. One would have thought from the way Mrs. Chandler urged on her workers that the winning of war depended on the number of socks sent to the boys. And perhaps it did, but this is the first time I have heard of it. We did a good job to do it with, for we have had from Major McGillivray the socks played an important part in keeping the men cheerful and contented."

"But not only have we worked for the boys overseas," she said,

she added.

Commissioner Jeffries recently presided at a tea and welcome meeting to the new Cadets in Peking-West, China. A fine reception was given by Adjutant and Mrs. Pomeroy who took an important part in the subsequent Salvation meeting. The testimonies of the Cadets from various towns of North China made a great impression. Five men volunteers joined the front.

Brother Sibley had been visiting a number of the principal Corps in North China, and reports encouragingly of the results and prospects for the future. Despite cold weather there were excellent attendances at the various meetings. Among the captives at Kuan had been two policemen who had been regularly attending the Hall.

In an interesting article specially contributed to the New Zealand "War Cry," Adjutant N. Norton writes as follows: "When we left Tung Chow the people—the women and children—were very frightened of us; they would run away when they saw us coming, and call out the 'Yang kuei li'—'the foreign devils are coming.' Now they are beginning to trust us, we help them, and bring along their sick people. We have decorated up several. As we go down the streets now we often hear the people singing one of the clirnches we sing in our meetings. 'Come follow, follow, follow! I will tell you 'Gut shui jui'—the follow Jesus song.' What a change from being called 'foreign devils,' is it not?"

He then gave a very interesting description of the journey of a pair of socks from a Corps in Canada to the front in France, giving the Captain a thrill. "We are thankful to the Home League in Canada and I thank God for the wonderful work they are doing. To truly realize how much the boys appreciated a dry pair of socks you have to be a dry pair of socks from the trenches, others perhaps, than have been standing in water for days."

He then gave a very interesting description of the journey of a pair of socks from a Corps in Canada to the front in France, giving the Captain a thrill. "We are thankful to the Home League in Canada and I thank God for the wonderful work they are doing. To truly realize how much the boys appreciated a dry pair of socks you have to be a dry pair of socks from the trenches, others perhaps, than have been standing in water for days."

"The number of socks we have received from the Leagues in Canada to the front in France, gives us a real sense of what the League is doing. One would have thought from the way Mrs. Chandler urged on her workers that the winning of war depended on the number of socks sent to the boys. And perhaps it did, but this is the first time I have heard of it. We did a good job to do it with, for we have had from Major McGillivray the socks played an important part in keeping the men cheerful and contented."

"But not only have we worked for the boys overseas," she said,

she added.

Commissioner Jeffries recently presided at a tea and welcome meeting to the new Cadets in Peking-West, China. A fine reception was given by Adjutant and Mrs. Pomeroy who took an important part in the subsequent Salvation meeting. The testimonies of the Cadets from various towns of North China made a great impression. Five men volunteers joined the front.

Brother Sibley had been visiting a number of the principal Corps in North China, and reports encouragingly of the results and prospects for the future. Despite cold weather there were excellent attendances at the various meetings. Among the captives at Kuan had been two policemen who had been regularly attending the Hall.

In an interesting article specially contributed to the New Zealand "War Cry," Adjutant N. Norton writes as follows: "When we left Tung Chow the people—the women and children—were very frightened of us; they would run away when they saw us coming, and call out the 'Yang kuei li'—'the foreign devils are coming.' Now they are beginning to trust us, we help them, and bring along their sick people. We have decorated up several. As we go down the streets now we often hear the people singing one of the clirnches we sing in our meetings. 'Come follow, follow, follow! I will tell you 'Gut shui jui'—the follow Jesus song.' What a change from being called 'foreign devils,' is it not?"

He then gave a very interesting description of the journey of a pair of socks from a Corps in Canada to the front in France, giving the Captain a thrill. "We are thankful to the Home League in Canada and I thank God for the wonderful work they are doing. To truly realize how much the boys appreciated a dry pair of socks you have to be a dry pair of socks from the trenches, others perhaps, than have been standing in water for days."

He then gave a very interesting description of the journey of

ELSEWHERE IN THIS ISSUE	Page
"Spiritual Growth".....	2
"The Practice of Holiness".....	2
Personal Impressions of Commissioning Down by Commissioner Sowton.....	2
Reports from the Field.....	4
Reminiscences of Field Officers	5
Salvation Work in Egypt.....	7
Home League Council.....	7
Military Social Service Work.....	11
Alaska Native Congress.....	12

WAR CRY

Printed for The Salvation Army in Canada, Newfoundland, and Alaska by The Salvation Army Printing House, 18 Albert Street, Toronto, Ontario.

EDITORIAL NOTES

A Great Mistake

IT is a lamentable fact, that while thousands of the worst of sinners sweep right through the Kingdom and remain steadfast, there are others, who, though they apparently make numerous efforts to do right, appear to be sinners, and will often appear to be bitter over the sin which gets them—usually, however, after it has landed them into temporal difficulty. It will often be found they do not realize their position in the Kingdom. The result is all right for a while, but eventually fall again, bringing sorrow to their own hearts and disgrace upon their comrades. The secret seems to lie in the fact that they do not see sin to be a hateful thing in all its phases.

A man of this class, whose down-fall has been strong drink, can easily be made to understand, when he has reached a state of poverty and physical weakness, that "the way to go is to droop, and will plead for deliverance from its chains with all his heart, but an examination of his motives will show that he is attempting to try Salvation as a remedy for drunkenness in very much the same spirit as any of the advertised species!

The Salvation of God is not this. We do not think we go too far when we say that the real difficulty is not with the drunkards or other outward and gross manifestations of evil, but with the inward strife of soul and pride of heart. Too much care cannot be taken to impress upon penitents that there must be a clear sweep of all that displeasing to God if conversion is to take place. It will not do to say, "I am sorry and die with the whole or nothing." That the surrender must be complete and embrace all sin because it is sin, and not extend only to those manifestations of evil, which are gross and followed by immediately unpleasant results.

The New Life

IT is of very great importance that new converts should understand they have not merely accepted certain beliefs and entered upon a state of condition which ensure their safety for a time, but that they continue to this hold and think.

The newly-born soul is no more in a state of spiritual maturity than the newly-born babe possesses a full measure of physical strength. It is born as a natural child, must either grow up and live or, failing growth, pine away and die so the individual, who imagines that he can remain a "babe in Christ" all his life, will sooner or later reach the point when the flame of spiritual life will be out.

It is of great importance that sitting at their ease. It is a way often beset with difficulties and dangers—a path so straight that no one can turn in it without departing from it—and the soul who does not make the effort to turn will never reach the City to which it leads, than the man who wants to go from Toronto to Winnipeg will get to his destination without travelling thitherwards. Clear and definite.

THE Bible is very clear and definite in its teaching on the subject. The Saviour Himself touched upon various phases of it: "Ye must be born again" were his words to Nicodemus. His statement concerning the straight path and the narrow way only there must be both starting-point and progression. The three sessions of Council for Young People on the Sunday were held as on previous years in the Orange Hall.

The entire audience of boys gathered in the Commissioner's youth camp was most marked and was sustained throughout the day.

Commissioner and Mrs. Sowton were by Brigadier McLean, the Divisional Commander, Major Sims and Major Peacock, and Mr. and Mrs. Social Secretaries, Commandant J. Hallirk, the Divisional Young People's Secretary; Adjutant Clarke, Walker and Carter.

The delegates, a notable meeting at the Citadel on Saturday evening to which there was a most encouraging attendance. The band, which continues to make good progress, furnished excellent music.

As Brigadier Sowton remarked, "The Young People's work were well received and Mrs. Sowton needed no introduction to a Vancouver audience for they were well known and were welcome when it was possible for them to come.

Both the Men's Social and Young People's Social Committees were meeting, each telling of the wonderful effect the Grace of God had had on their lives. Solos were sung by Commandant Hallirk and Adjutant Carter.

Mrs. Commissioner Sowton said she was in the best of spirits at another Young People's Congress at Vancouver. "Since the last

(continued on Page 12)

Commissioner Howard Planting a Memorial Tree in the Grounds of the London University Hospital. (See Page 9)

Vancouver Young People's Day

Conducted by COMMISSIONER and MRS. SOWTON—Attendance of Young People Reaches Two Hundred and Seventy-five and Crowd for Demonstration

THE Young People's Congress, conducted by Commissioner Sowton at Vancouver, was brought to a successful conclusion with a Demonstration by the Young People of the various City Corps on Monday evening, March 16.

All the public meetings and Councils were well attended and the City and outside members of the Demonstration was crowded to the doors.

The three sessions of Council for Young People on the Sunday were held as on previous years in the Orange Hall.

The entire audience of boys gathered in the Commissioner's youth camp was most marked and was sustained throughout the day.

"I want to speak to you this year," said the Commissioner on "God's Standards of Duty." The most live and important subject was delivered in a convincing and straightforward manner. People were right on time on Sunday, the first session of the day, about two hundred and fifty being present.

"I want to speak to you this year," said the Commissioner on "God's Standards of Duty." The most live and important subject was delivered in a convincing and straightforward manner. People were right on time on Sunday, the first session of the day, about two hundred and fifty being present.

The various truths which the Commissioner had on the subject of the servant of God is a race which must be run with patience, and the right way to life eternal.

"I want to speak to you this year," said the Commissioner on "God's Standards of Duty." The most live and important subject was delivered in a convincing and straightforward manner. People were right on time on Sunday, the first session of the day, about two hundred and fifty being present.

"I want to speak to you this year," said the Commissioner on "God's Standards of Duty." The most live and important subject was delivered in a convincing and straightforward manner. People were right on time on Sunday, the first session of the day, about two hundred and fifty being present.

"I want to speak to you this year," said the Commissioner on "God's Standards of Duty." The most live and important subject was delivered in a convincing and straightforward manner. People were right on time on Sunday, the first session of the day, about two hundred and fifty being present.

"I want to speak to you this year," said the Commissioner on "God's Standards of Duty." The most live and important subject was delivered in a convincing and straightforward manner. People were right on time on Sunday, the first session of the day, about two hundred and fifty being present.

"I want to speak to you this year," said the Commissioner on "God's Standards of Duty." The most live and important subject was delivered in a convincing and straightforward manner. People were right on time on Sunday, the first session of the day, about two hundred and fifty being present.

"I want to speak to you this year," said the Commissioner on "God's Standards of Duty." The most live and important subject was delivered in a convincing and straightforward manner. People were right on time on Sunday, the first session of the day, about two hundred and fifty being present.

"I want to speak to you this year," said the Commissioner on "God's Standards of Duty." The most live and important subject was delivered in a convincing and straightforward manner. People were right on time on Sunday, the first session of the day, about two hundred and fifty being present.

"I want to speak to you this year," said the Commissioner on "God's Standards of Duty." The most live and important subject was delivered in a convincing and straightforward manner. People were right on time on Sunday, the first session of the day, about two hundred and fifty being present.

"I want to speak to you this year," said the Commissioner on "God's Standards of Duty." The most live and important subject was delivered in a convincing and straightforward manner. People were right on time on Sunday, the first session of the day, about two hundred and fifty being present.

"I want to speak to you this year," said the Commissioner on "God's Standards of Duty." The most live and important subject was

April 12, 1919

THE WAR CRY

GENERAL ORDER

CANDIDATES' SUNDAY

ADDRESSES CROWDED MEETING IN LONDON I. CITADEL RECEIVES ENTHUSIASTIC WELCOME

A Day of Interesting Events—Betheda Hospital Inspected—Cliniques of the Wide Range of Salvation Army Operations

WEEK-END CAMPAIGN AT CHICAGO

CHARLES SOWTON, Commissioner

popular military leader, spoke in a most winsome manner of the Army's work, and Brigadier Pownall expressed very cordially his admiration and love for the Army and its people.

The night Salvation Battle was a typical Army fight for souls. The fine Army Citadel was packed with an ideal American audience, which listened with rapt attention and the greatest possible interest. God wonderfully helped the Commissioner to deal with the eternal truths of the Gospel.

A magnificent day finished with a long row of picnics seeking mercy and salvation, offering thanks to God for God's triumph. He had indeed helped the Commissioner to deal with the eternal truths of the Gospel.

Commissioner and Mrs. Sowton, Colonel Peart, and a large number of Staff and Field Officers (who are in charge of the Children's Shelter, was the first to give an address. He was followed by Mr. J. W. Reynolds of the Provincial Jail. He came in from the jail, and addressed the gathering, and spoke out most frankly of the influence of the Army for good in that institution.

Mrs. Commandant Larson sang very sweetly. "You can tell out the Army by the character of one's Social lecture, which was the main feature of the afternoon's proceedings. At the close the Rev. W. Rutherford commented on the Army's work very seriously, and wished it every success.

The Premier was asked to speak next, and he was given a rousing reception. His words revealed his sincere interest in the Salvation Army. The meeting was most enthusiastic from start to finish.

A splendid crowd attended the night meeting, and were deeply interested. The Colonel's gripping address, "The Colonels Grip," and Captain McCaughley both spoke.

The meeting was so well attended that the Commissioner launched out on a description of some of the many sides of Salvation Army work. In virtue of his office there had come together upon the stage, so to speak, the ends of the earth, and in a position to speak of what God was enabling the Salvation Army to do for the extension of His Kingdom upon earth and the blessing of mankind.

Touching the work among the troops, he said that during the First World War the Canadian Army had had at work 15,000 other Officers and assistants, 77 ambulance cars, 320 hostels, inns, and rest houses, which accommodated 11,000 men nightly. Most recently, he said the British War, the Canadian Army had taken over and control 100 houses in a square in London, England, to look after the men on leave or being demobilized.

Commissioner Richards also welcomed the Chief as one of the founders of the Salvation Army. He said, "I am glad to see that the Chief is very faithfully ministered with music and song by Sisters A. Quigley and May Quigley of the Vancouver Citadel Corps.

The service conducted each Sunday at Orléans Prison Farm, by Commandant C. A. McLean, wife of Brigadier McLean, wife of the Adjutant, and Mrs. Sowton, is confined to her bed. This was a great disappointment to Mrs. McLean, who was unable to be present at the Commissioner's meeting in Vancouver.

The services conducted each Sunday at Orléans Prison Farm, by Commandant C. A. McLean, wife of the Adjutant, and Mrs. Sowton, are conducted with the Red Shield Drive.

Captain Lister, who has been busily occupied for some weeks in connection with the alterations of the Nanking Citadel in Nanking, China, has been engaged in the erection of a new building for this recent opening.

Arrangements are being made for the Nanking Citadel Stand to be used during the present period of the Chinese Civil War.

Commissioner Howard expressed his warmest thanks for the greeting given to him. His first concern as he travelled about the world was with his comrades of the Salvation Army.

With many witty tales (says the

REGINA SOCIAL ANNUAL

CONDUCTED BY THE CHIEF SECRETARY

Premier of Saskatchewan Attends and Speaks Warmly of Salvation Army—Good Work Being Done in the Provincial Jail

The second Social Annual at Regina was conducted by Colonel Turner, assisted by Mrs. Brigadier Potter and Major Sims. On Sunday morning a helpful Holiness meeting was led by the Colonel.

At the afternoon meeting the Hon. W. M. Martin, Premier of Saskatchewan, was present, and he was supported by members of the Provincial Cabinet, City Councilors, a number of the Clergy, Mr. F. H. Reynolds, representing the Society for Neglected Children, and others.

Brigadier Coombs acted as Chairman, and introduced the various speakers. Envoy Collier, who is in charge of the Children's Shelter, was the first to give an address. He was followed by Mr. J. W. Reynolds of the Provincial Jail. He came in from the jail, and addressed the gathering, and spoke out most frankly of the influence of the Army for good in that institution.

Mrs. Commandant Larson sang very sweetly. "You can tell out the Army by the character of one's Social lecture, which was the main feature of the afternoon's proceedings. At the close the Rev. W. Rutherford commented on the Army's work very seriously, and wished it every success.

The Premier was asked to speak next, and he was given a rousing reception. His words revealed his sincere interest in the Salvation Army. The meeting was most enthusiastic from start to finish.

A splendid crowd attended the night meeting, and were deeply interested. The Colonel's gripping address, "The Colonels Grip," and Captain McCaughley both spoke.

The meeting was so well attended that the Commissioner launched out on a description of some of the many sides of Salvation Army work. In virtue of his office there had come together upon the stage, so to speak, the ends of the earth, and in a position to speak of what God was enabling the Salvation Army to do for the extension of His Kingdom upon earth and the blessing of mankind.

There may be said the Colonel, a very real sense in which Commissioner Howard did not need introduction, as he is one of those greatest men that have ever lived. When he had been in Canada he had been received with the greatest enthusiasm by the people.

The following figures relating to the Hut Work at Staples, France, have been supplied by Commandant (Chaplain-Captain) Carroll. They cover the period from November 1st, 1918, to February 19th, 1919:

Hot drinks supplied, including tea, coffee, tea, oxo, lemon, preserves and special compositions for colds, etc. .... 27,634

Rock cakes and biscuits given with the drinks ..... 1,600

Gifts to men, including shaving sticks, towels, toilet soap, toothpaste, pencil, brushes, socks, stockings, hats, caps, mittens, blankets, fine of bedding, etc. .... 5043

Prizes for different competitions which have been highly appreciated by the men ..... 1,004

The Hut is being attended by large numbers of men all the time, and all seem extremely thankful for what is being done for their spiritual, social and physical comfort.

With many witty tales (says the

(Continued on Page 10)

COMMISSIONER HOWARD

(Continued from Page 9)
London Free Press) he described some of the social problems which the Army had to contend with. There are up to thousands of cases are looked after each year. He said that the Army went about its work silently but efficiently, and that hundreds of thousands of people had been helped around the corner to day.

He told about the criminal tribes of India numbering 3,000,000. They had been brought up and trained to steal and lie. What was the use of working if they could secure a living by thieving? He begged the people to help the Salvation Army to come to their assistance with the source whence we can obtain ready legal and other assistance we would be compelled to establish such branches in connection with the work.

Work in Java

Java is another great missionary field of the Salvation Army. He told of the work being done there. He told of the great eye hospital. He told of how some 2,000 lepers are being looked after. The Governor, in his position, has requested the Dutch Indies to specially request the Salvation Army to take over part of the stupendous task of looking after these people. The Government furnished the money so that the work can be carried on.

In Indonesia he argued upon all God's people the necessity of taking a firm stand in the world and making it unmistakably clear they were on the side of Jesus Christ.

Some interesting events took place in the afternoon. First of all, in the presence of the Queen of the Hospital, the Commissioner dedicated to God Edwin Barnard, the infant son of Adjutant and Mrs. Martin. Those who were privileged to be present will not soon forget the scene. The Queen and the Commissioner displayed, on the carpet, a scroll with which he explained to the Queen the meaning of the obligation they were taking upon themselves. It was a model dedication.

Planting Memorial Tree

Next came the planting of a memorial tree in the Hospital grounds. It was of course simple. At the conclusion the plant was taken around it and pressed it down, he said, "It is with great pleasure I plant this tree. May this house be a house of mercy indeed."

The following day, at the inception of the campaign, at one of the airy and bright wards were visited the Commissioner and other members of the party expressed their delight.

The well-equipped operated hospital for medical service, the modern provisions for cleanliness, quietness and good service were all admired, the width of the corridors, the loftiness of the ceilings, and the splendid surroundings were all matters of comment.

After the visit the Commissioner conducted prayers with the officers of the institution—Pioneers, croupiers of many, the visitor well designated them—with Adjutant Marshall at the head.

Military Social Service Work

District Visitors Doing Good Service—Many Soldiers' Families Are Helped—Meeting Women and Children at the Station—Boys in Khaki Like the Hostels

NOTES BY THE MILITARY SECRETARY

SINCE the appointment of the four District Visitors the work in connection with the Toronto Military Social Service Department has been materially increased, with substantial benefit to an increasing number of soldiers and dependents. We are now in a position with the source whence we can obtain ready legal and other assistance we would be compelled to establish such branches in connection with the work.

Our District Visitors have shown fine adaptability for the varied circumstances with which they are confronted. One found a mother sick in bed, the children sick with colds, the house chilly because the fire was out. He arranged to get a fire to light the furnace, arrange with a neighbour to keep it going for a few days, get some cough medicine for the children, and some attention for the mother. This was done in a few hours. O. K. was a similar course was followed where the husband and father was sick in bed, the mother in the hospital, and coal was required. Another straightened up a serious difficulty between a recently married soldier and his wife, who would not have the disastrous consequences. Prayerful faithfulness led to a result which caused the Chief of the local Police Station to remark that it was "the finest piece of work that had ever come under his notice in his long career."

The same sort of tactfulness is manifested by the women working under Capt. C. C. Gilliland's direction in meeting the training of young soldiers dependents. One train recently brought over two hundred soldiers with wives and children. It was a few minutes the crowd was on the platform. In the midst of the confusion, a soldier, strong and healthy, who knew that there, Sabbath would soon be numbered, but had a lively hope of entering on that Sabbath which has no eventide.

As already hinted, our experience are varied, and many demands are made upon our time and sympathy. What documents of "human interest" are presented nearly every day. A soldier who had a slightly wounded, who kept a howling baby, called a few days ago. A poor fellow who had been sick for some time, had been sick for some time in former months, the result of wounds received in the Boer War. He had no money to pay his expenses. Could the Army help them? The Military Secretary, assisted by Ensign Dray, conducted the service at the grave side and laid his remains to rest until the "Reveille" sounds.

That reminds me that of the crowd referred to, about thirty-five persons, soldiers, wives and children were accommodated at our new "Red Shield" Hostel (formerly the Scout Headquarters) in the rear of the building for the night. Those going out of town were given a send-off the next day. Ensign and Mrs. Laurie had made excellent preparations for the comfort of their transient hosts. The "Red Shield" on board ship, or on the train from the seaboard, nobody will be surprised that the emphasis was distinctly upon the head.

The Commissioner and the Chief Secretary have been more than busy of late, either opening new institutions or arranging for new properties in connection with the Military Social Service work. For our part we sincerely thank the Commissioner's arrangement for us to have our offices on the ground floor. The "Red Shield" on the windows and the painting and removing gives a fine appearance, and as some one remarked, we think, we are "some pumpkins."

At the end of the day the Commissioner, with Adjutant Marshall and the Headquarters present at the "Red Shield" were several veterans whose acquaintance he had made. Commissioner Howard goes back many years, Brother and Sister Ward for example. Brother Ward was one of the earliest converts at the Citadel, he having joined the Army at Watchight when he was a boy.

Candidates' Sunday—April 20

EASTER SUNDAY IS THE DAY APPOINTED FOR AN URGENT CALL FOR CANDIDATES FOR OFFICERSHIP

NAVAL OFFICER

Testifies to Excellent Influence of Salvation Army in the Royal Navy

A distinguished naval officer, Captain Carpenter, V.C., who is on a visit to Canada, granted an interview to Major Peacock whilst he was in connection with the 35th Anniversary services at the Citadel.

Three days' Military Social Service Conducted by Major Peacock and

Memorial Tablets Unveiled

by Major Carter

In connection with the 35th Anversary services at the Citadel

the Citadel, there were very interesting events taking place on the station, namely the unveiling of a marble tablet in memory of two local Salvationists who gave their lives fighting for liberty in the great war.

Major Secretary Ernie Jublin, who unveiled the tablet in the 1st Battalion, and Brother Jim Moss, who served in the 3rd Battalion.

The service opened with the song,

"Servant of God, well done," after which Captain Dawson prayed.

Major Southall, who was conducting the service, then called upon Secretary Ryer to read the list of all those who had enlisted from the Corps.

The list comprises 38 names of members and adherents, and of that number three had given up their lives, two had been disabled three, two wounded twice, several had been wounded once.

One of the number had attained an warrant rank, one Sergeant-Major,

one Staff-Sergeant, two Sergeants,

one Corporal, and one Lance-

Corporal.

Speaking of the dead Comrades,

the Major said their influence would last as long as the world lasted; referring to Brother Jublin he said that his life was an inspiration to many others to follow him.

Once the Captain of the Battalion was indisposed, and Brother Jublin was requested to fulfill the duties.

Major Southall then called upon

Major J. E. Carter to perform the unveiling ceremony. In a few well chosen words he addressed the two Comrades. When the tablet was unveiled the Band played the Salvation Army Funeral March,

"Promoted to Glory."

Sunday afternoon's meeting was spent for old-time reminiscences

under Capt. C. C. Gilliland.

Major Ryer, Mrs. Mrs. Mrs. Mrs.

Dawson (nee Captain Churchill) spoke at length on the opening of the Salvation Army in Guelph.

Thousands at this time sought the Salvation Army for shelter and food.

Those who have been in the Army

will be interested to know that the Army is still in existence.

At the night meeting the Major spoke on "After the war, What?"

WYCHWOOD (TORONTO)

Splendid week-end meetings were conducted by Ensign and Mrs. Snowden, assisted by Captain Fox. In the afternoon Sergeant-Major Bars-by of the 198th Battalion, who has returned from overseas, gave a gigantic talk. Our soldiers in the Mercy Seat in the night meeting.

The Young People's work is progressing favourably. Sixty-nine

Juniors out of the seventy-two who are in the Corps

are in the corps.

At the night meeting the Major

spoke on "After the war, What?"

ST. ANTHONY (N.F.L.)

We are having good meetings at St. Anthony. On a recent Sunday night five souls came forward, and on the following Tuesday night four others knelt at the Cross.

CANDIDATES' SUNDAY

The issue of the Easter Number of the "War Cry" for the St. Anthony's

includes the following:

1. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

2. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

3. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

4. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

5. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

6. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

7. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

8. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

9. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

10. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

11. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

12. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

13. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

14. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

15. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

16. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

17. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

18. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

19. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

20. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

21. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

22. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

23. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

24. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

25. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

26. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

27. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

28. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

29. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

30. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

31. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

32. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

33. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

34. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

35. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

36. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

37. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

38. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

39. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

40. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

41. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

42. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

43. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

44. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

45. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

46. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

47. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

48. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

49. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

50. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

51. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

52. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

53. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

54. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

55. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

56. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

57. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

58. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

59. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

60. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

61. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

62. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

63. A special article on the

Salvation Army.

64. A special article on the

NEWS FROM ACROSS THE BORDER-LINE

CONGRESS AT PORTLAND, OREGON—2,000 SEEKERS IN CAMPAIGN CONDUCTED BY COLONEL BRENGLE

Commissioner Estill recently conducted a Congress at Portland, Oregon. Mayor G. L. Baker paid a splendid tribute to the Salvation Army, particularly emphasizing our work overseas, not forgetting the Home Service Work, and had the Commandant welcomed. Portland Officers, Companys and public meetings resulted in much blessing and many seekers.

The start for St. John's, New-

A LITTLE over a year ago, when stationed as Chief Divisional Secretary for Texas and Oklahoma, Dallas, Texas, a letter was received asking me to go to Newfoundland for me year.

The start for St. John's, New-

foundland is a city of about 32,000

population. Here we have three Corps, a Rescue Home, a Men's Social Institution, a Training College for Cadets, a school and college, attended by about 350 scholars.

The people are a great church-going people. They do not say they are going to church or meeting but say they are "going to prayers."

The newspapers of St. John's of which there are seven, are exceedingly kind to the Army. This is greatly appreciated by our Provincial Commanders.

Beautiful Scenery

The scenery of Newfoundland probably cannot be surpassed in the world. Its evergreen trees, its almost countless lakes, its rivers, its bays, its hills, its mountains, its rocks; its thousands of gallons of blue berries, partridge berries, bake apples; its deer, its fish, its dogs, its ponies—all make scenes of beauty and interest.

It has one railroad running across the country, and boat service to all parts of the coast when navigation is possible, which is about six months in the year.

At the present time we have no doctors, which is a serious matter in times of sickness, injuries or epidemics. This the Army has partly overcome, by sending a First Aid book and one triangular and one roll bagage case to each soldier.

Teaching throughout the Dominion. A First Aid mail course has also been started under the direction of the Superintendent of Schools which will make it possible for any who desire to do so, to get a diploma on the completion of the course.

The story of the rise of this new industry is told in the reports of the United States tariff commission. The figures represent the progress achieved by a new industry—printed dye making—not the ordinary expansion of an established industry.

Major Parker

Major Parker and the New York Training College have gotten into the harness and are now busy at their studies and other work," writes Colonel Peart. Colonel and Mrs. Miles are greatly pleased with the "ability" of the young people who are a lively, cheerful company and are working hard to fit themselves for service in the Salvation Army.

BRITISH CHAPLAIN

Is Promoted to Glory—Impressive Funeral Service Conducted by the Chief of the Staff.

Major Walter Powley, whose promotion to Glory we referred to in our last issue, was appointed Chaplain His Majesty's Military Forces about a year ago, and until his illness was located with the troops in France, and was then esteemed one of the best in the service.

Major Powley came of a Salvation Army family. His brother, Colonel Powley, is Field Secretary for Australia, and his sister is Mrs. Envoy of Toronto.

Bravery simple and yet intensely impressive was the funeral service which Commissioner Higgins, the Chief of the Staff, conducted in the Congress Hall, Clapton.

The casket containing the remains of the Promoted Officer was draped in a flag, and the Union Jack, over which lay the Army Flag with the Major's cap.

Very touching were some of the personal incidents mentioned by the Chief and various representative members of the congregation.

Major Powley served and particularly during that all-too-brief period of his Chaplaincy.

The Commissioner, who spoke highly of the deceased warrior, visited the casket, lay in repose to the Major's strains of "Amen," and recited through his dear wife, an affectionate written message in which he expressed his gladness at his coming, and his thanks to the General and all for their love and sympathy. He then uttered but suddenly a wondrous peace—the beautiful peace of God possessed him, and the everlasting Arms were upholding him and were very real.

A little over a year ago, when stationed as Chief Divisional Secretary for Texas and Oklahoma, Dallas, Texas, a letter was received asking me to go to Newfoundland for me year.

The start for St. John's, New-

foundland is a city of about 32,000

population. Here we have three

Corps, a Rescue Home, a Men's Social

Institution, a Training College for Cadets, a school and college, attended by about 350 scholars.

The people are a great church-going people. They do not say they are going to church or meeting but say they are "going to prayers."

The newspapers of St. John's of which there are seven, are exceedingly kind to the Army. This is greatly appreciated by our Provincial Commanders.

Beautiful Scenery

The scenery of Newfoundland probably cannot be surpassed in the world. Its evergreen trees, its almost countless lakes, its rivers, its bays, its hills, its mountains, its rocks; its thousands of gallons of blue berries, partridge berries, bake apples; its deer, its fish, its dogs, its ponies—all make scenes of beauty and interest.

It has one railroad running across the country, and boat service to all parts of the coast when navigation is possible, which is about six months in the year.

At the present time we have no doctors, which is a serious matter in times of sickness, injuries or epidemics. This the Army has partly overcome, by sending a First Aid book and one triangular and one roll bagage case to each soldier.

Teaching throughout the Dominion. A First Aid mail course has also been started under the direction of the Superintendent of Schools which will make it possible for any who desire to do so, to get a diploma on the completion of the course.

The story of the rise of this new industry is told in the reports of the United States tariff commission. The figures represent the progress achieved by a new industry—printed dye making—not the ordinary expansion of an established industry.

Major Parker and the New York Training College have gotten into the harness and are now busy at their studies and other work," writes Colonel Peart. Colonel and Mrs. Miles are greatly pleased with the "ability" of the young people who are a lively, cheerful company and are working hard to fit themselves for service in the Salvation Army.

Major Parker and the New

York Training College have gotten

into the harness and are now busy

at their studies and other work,"

writes Colonel Peart. Colonel and

Mrs. Miles are greatly pleased

with the "ability" of the young

people who are a lively, cheerful

company and are working hard to

fit themselves for service in the

Salvation Army.

Major Parker and the New

York Training College have gotten

into the harness and are now busy

at their studies and other work,"

writes Colonel Peart. Colonel and

Mrs. Miles are greatly pleased

with the "ability" of the young

people who are a lively, cheerful

company and are working hard to

fit themselves for service in the

Salvation Army.

Major Parker and the New

York Training College have gotten

into the harness and are now busy

at their studies and other work,"

writes Colonel Peart. Colonel and

Mrs. Miles are greatly pleased

with the "ability" of the young

people who are a lively, cheerful

company and are working hard to

fit themselves for service in the

Salvation Army.

Major Parker and the New

York Training College have gotten

into the harness and are now busy

at their studies and other work,"

writes Colonel Peart. Colonel and

Mrs. Miles are greatly pleased

with the "ability" of the young

people who are a lively, cheerful

company and are working hard to

fit themselves for service in the

Salvation Army.

Major Parker and the New

York Training College have gotten

into the harness and are now busy

at their studies and other work,"

writes Colonel Peart. Colonel and

Mrs. Miles are greatly pleased

with the "ability" of the young

people who are a lively, cheerful

company and are working hard to

fit themselves for service in the

Salvation Army.

Major Parker and the New

York Training College have gotten

into the harness and are now busy

at their studies and other work,"

writes Colonel Peart. Colonel and

Mrs. Miles are greatly pleased

with the "ability" of the young

people who are a lively, cheerful

company and are working hard to

fit themselves for service in the

Salvation Army.

Major Parker and the New

York Training College have gotten

into the harness and are now busy

at their studies and other work,"

writes Colonel Peart. Colonel and

Mrs. Miles are greatly pleased

with the "ability" of the young

people who are a lively, cheerful

company and are working hard to

fit themselves for service in the

Salvation Army.

Major Parker and the New

York Training College have gotten

into the harness and are now busy

at their studies and other work,"

writes Colonel Peart. Colonel and

Mrs. Miles are greatly pleased

with the "ability" of the young

people who are a lively, cheerful

company and are working hard to

fit themselves for service in the

Salvation Army.

Major Parker and the New

York Training College have gotten

into the harness and are now busy

at their studies and other work,"

writes Colonel Peart. Colonel and

Mrs. Miles are greatly pleased

with the "ability" of the young

people who are a lively, cheerful

company and are working hard to

fit themselves for service in the

Salvation Army.

Major Parker and the New

York Training College have gotten

into the harness and are now busy

at their studies and other work,"

writes Colonel Peart. Colonel and

Mrs. Miles are greatly pleased

with the "ability" of the young

people who are a lively, cheerful

company and are working hard to

fit themselves for service in the

Salvation Army.

Major Parker and the New

York Training College have gotten

into the harness and are now busy

at their studies and other work,"

writes Colonel Peart. Colonel and

Mrs. Miles are greatly pleased

with the "ability" of the young

people who are a lively, cheerful

company and are working hard to

fit themselves for service in the

Salvation Army.

Major Parker and the New

York Training College have gotten

into the harness and are now busy

at their studies and other work,"

writes Colonel Peart. Colonel and

Mrs. Miles are greatly pleased

with the "ability" of the young

people who are a lively, cheerful

company and are working hard to

fit themselves for service in the

Salvation Army.

Major Parker and the New

York Training College have gotten

into the harness and are now busy

at their studies and other work,"

writes Colonel Peart. Colonel and

Mrs. Miles are greatly pleased

with the "ability" of the young

people who are a lively, cheerful

company and are working hard to

fit themselves for service in the

Salvation Army.

Major Parker and the New

York Training College have gotten

into the harness and are now busy

at their studies and other work,"

writes Colonel Peart. Colonel and

Mrs. Miles are greatly pleased

with the "ability" of the young

people who are a lively, cheerful

company and are working hard to

fit themselves for service in the

Salvation Army.

Major Parker and the New

York Training College have gotten

into the harness and are now busy

at their studies and other work,"

writes Colonel Peart. Colonel and

Mrs. Miles are greatly pleased

with the "ability" of the young

people who are a lively, cheerful

company and are working hard to

fit themselves for service in the

Salvation Army.

Major Parker and the New

York Training College have gotten

into the harness and are now busy

at their studies and other work,"

writes Colonel Peart. Colonel and

Mrs. Miles are greatly pleased

with the "ability" of the young

people who are a lively, cheerful

company and are working hard to

fit themselves for service in the

Salvation Army.

Major Parker and the New

York Training College have gotten

into the harness and are now busy

at their studies and other work,"

writes Colonel Peart. Colonel and

Mrs. Miles are greatly pleased

with the "ability" of the young

people who are a lively, cheerful

company and are working hard to

fit themselves for service in the

Salvation Army.

Major Parker and the New

York Training College have gotten

into the harness and are now busy

at their studies and other work,"

writes Colonel Peart. Colonel and

Mrs. Miles are greatly pleased

with the "ability" of the young

people who are a lively, cheerful

company and are working hard to

fit themselves for service in the

Salvation Army.

Major Parker and the New

York Training College have gotten

into the harness and are now busy

HALLELUJAH ROCKY THE : TWICE : BORN : MAN

S. A. KIRKSPEN

By

SUMMARY OF PREVIOUS CHAPTERS

Jim Smith was a drunkard's son and his early life was a bad one. Jim had a mind to be a soldier and had drunk himself into his grave. Jim made a break for it and the better when his mother married a crook. When it failed he turned to the police, but he got in with a bad set of companions. When he was released from prison he got on the trampship. This gang was always up to mischief. At length they got into a fight with a bunch of ruffians and violence started their way.

PART I—CHAPTER XVII.

THE OUTWORKINGS OF SIN

A S time went on, Jim and the gang he had associated with grew more bold and reckless in committing evil deeds. We do not mention the names of these men, but it must be a memorandum of repetition of drunkards, thefts, and violence, but an account of what happened on the Hong Kong races will serve to show how criminal were their instincts and how utterly disengaged they had become from the rights of others, seeking to satisfy their own selfish desires.

"Begorra, blarney!" said Pat our day. "The races are coming off to-morrow, and now is the time to lay away to think of. What are we going to do?"

"It will be the poorest kind of a time with no hopes to speculate on the ponies, and not even the price of war, military or blank," said Mike McCaffrey, a mutt.

CHEERFUL WORDS

"Cheer up, Mike old boy," said Jim; "we've never been in a hole yet that we haven't got out of somehow. I'll tell you what's in store for us to-morrow, that will be rolling in money to-morrow."

"What are you? are you after being in to-morrow?" said Harry O'Flanagan. "You're up to another trick, I see. You're going to rob a rich Chinaman's house and get away with his cash. Jim, will you give it to me, boy?" said Jim, with a joke. "I'll put you in funds all right, we'll have a rip-roaring old time at races to-morrow."

It was Jim's audience and respectful, and the others were looking each other up and down with bated breath, waiting to grab it up."

VERY MIXED CROWD

The gang moved over to where the Chinaman sat in his betting board in front of him. A very mixed crowd, including a number of Chinamen, and black ones gathered around, and a good deal of money was being placed on the board when the owner entered. Hundreds of dollars were thus exposed to view, and the game looked at the tempting pile with covetous eyes.

The horses had to run three times around the course, but Jim feigned ignorance of this, and when the first round was completed and the bets were leading to a dead heat, he managed to get out of what he was pleased to call a "good one."

GAME TO DAD ENOS

"Come on, give me the money I've won," said Jim, and he made a grab for the pile of dollars. This was too much for the gang to run in, and for a few moments there was a rough and tumble scramble, the soldiers seeking to secure all the money they could, and the right one, starting to get a few rounds in.

It is probable that Jim himself would also have run to a violent end or suffered a long term of imprisonment if he had not become a changed man when he died.

"You're making a mistake when you take money—give dollars back," said the owner of the board, and he was backed up by all those who had lost their stakes, and the gang had to run the crook out.

"Well, he earned his walk-off," said the Chinaman. "The man had worked out his part of the game, and he was entitled to his share."

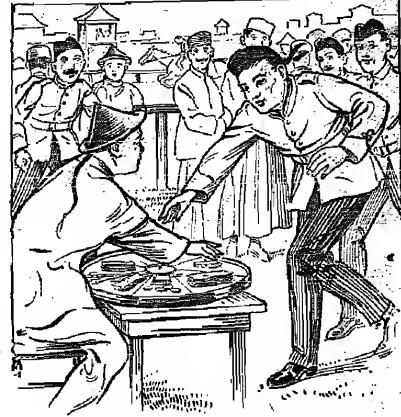

Afterward the gang got out for the races. Their first walk-off, however, they had "walked off" with, and the last time they took needed to the place where bats were being taken to trees. Jim had a mind to be a soldier at first and see if luck would favour him. So he put four dollars in a certain horse, and was rather crestfallen when it failed to come in first.

"We can't risk any more dollars like

HIS STIRRING LIFE STORY IN THREE PARTS:

- I. Dark Days Without Christ
- II. Dawning of the Great Light
- III. Exploits in Salvation Service

"We made a grab for the pile of dollars."

Attracted by the noise, and the benefits of a few soldiers now come upon the scene, and seeing that their comrades surrounded by a boisterous crowd, the soldiers rushed to the nearest ring of one of them. His companions had all the same wild, loose and piercing eyes, and the air of the desperadoes of this outrage. Four of the soldiers obtained rings, and the others, seeing that the others were not so successful in securing them, but three failed in their attempt. There was at once a great commotion in the bazaar, and a crowd of natives made a rush for the soldiers, yelling like mad, and some of them, in their excitement, struck the soldiers.

"They're human beings, boys; let's go in a boat!" shouted Jim. And he led the way down a side street, running his fastest.

The natives were just as fleet-footed, however, and seeing that the way was safe, overtook Jim, and the two of them started away, followed by his panting companions.

IN A POLICE COURT

Of all places for Jim to find refuge it certainly seemed the worst. He was a poor, defenceless, however, for the magistrate, on learning what had happened, instructed a policeman to take the culprit out by the back door and escort them to their ship.

So they went back and Jim was taken aboard the ship, and as he perceived over the heads of these men that they applauded their evil deeds and sang in His honour, "He's a jolly good fellow."

And thus it is that a once innocent youth another little knowing that both shall sink into perdition, except they repeat: "(To be continued)"

A FRIEND TO MAN

There are heroic souls that live withdrawn.

In the peace of their solace;

There are souls, like stars, that dwell in a glorious firmament;

There are pioneer souls that blaze their paths

Where highways never ran;

But let me live by the side of the road

That has a friend to call;

Let me live in a house by the side of the road

Where no one goes by;

They are good, they are bad, they are weak, they are strong;

Wise, foolish—so am I.

Then why should I sit in the darkness?

Or have the cynic's smile?

Let me live in the world, but let me

And have friends to call.

It is interesting to note what happened to his companions in life. Pat was hanged for robbing a Chinaman's house, and was hanged as an officer. Harry James got two years for attempting to murder a sergeant, and Barnes died from the effects of hard drinking.

It is probable that Jim himself would also have run to a violent end or suffered a long term of imprisonment if he had not become a changed man when he died.

Shortly after the events above related, Jim was taken into custody and was sent to a hospital. Hence he stayed in the hospital, and was finally pronounced to be unfit for further military service. He was ordered

COMING SOON

New Salvation Army Hostel on Johnson Street Already Proving Popular

Very little has been written of the part played by the Salvation Army in caring for the men at the front, but the returning soldier will wax enthusiastic on the success given by the Army representatives in their huts that housed the men of the army, the companies of hospitals the Salvation Army is following up the work commenced in France and the men who have no home or friends in the city, or are ex-service men who has just received his discharge and is seeking employment.

The Victoria Hostel opened its doors for the first time last Saturday, Major Sims performing the opening ceremony. The new Hostel is situated on Johnson Street, close to the E. and N. Railway station, and is open for the reception of soldiers and sailors, or for the men who have no home or friends in the city, or are ex-service men who has just received his discharge and is seeking employment.

The cordial invitation inscribed upon the plaque above the door finds its reflection in the cheery atmosphere of welcome which pervades the establishment. A big, easy going lounge and rest room, with an abundance of magazines and writing-materials has an adjoining smoking-room, where smokers may indulge to their heart's content.

Upstairs are the bedrooms and dormitories. Single and double bedrooms may be had—and in this re-

A Book That Will Help You! MIRIAM BOOTH

A Sketch by Mrs. Lieut.-Colonel Carpenter
Introduction by Commissioner Mildred Duff

Primarily the life story of the third daughter of a truly warrior career, this volume is very much more. It gives some most illuminating pictures of the home life of the Army's Leaders. Although suffering and death have a large place in these pages, it is not a book of gloom, but one of victory and true life. Its message is "Doing God's work is a great thing; doing God's will is greater."

With portrait and family pictures not before printed; over two hundred pages; cloth-bound. Price (postage 4 extra) $1.00

Obtainable from:
Trade Secretary, 203 Confederation Life Building, Winnipeg

Some idea of the popularity of the Hostel throughout Canada may be gauged by the fact that the Victoria Hostel, which is small and has now been enlarged to accommodate three hundred men, while the Vancouver home has been filled ever since it opened.

In Captain Wesley, who has charge of the Hostel, the author will find a friend indeed. As a veteran of the South African war, he has a keen understanding of the problems of the man returning to civilian life after arm-service. While connected with the Army operations in Vancouver, he came closely in touch with ex-service men. His wide experience eminently fits him for his present position—Victoria Times.

MAJOR PEACOCK

Leads Sunday Meetings at Vancouver II. Corps

On Sunday we were pleased to have with us at Vancouver II. for the afternoon and evening meetings, Major W. Peacock, a man of high character and proved of interest to all present. The chief feature of the afternoon meeting was the dedicating of James Joseph Temple.

The Major also visited the Company Meeting in the afternoon. His address was listened to very eagerly by the Young People.

At night an impressive Salvation meeting was held by Major Peacock.

Major Peacock, who is doing nicely just now, rendered good service. Adjutant Halliday took part, assisting with a salm.

TRADE ANNOUNCEMENTS!

Prices for Men's Suits and Overcoats for the Spring Season

RED VESTS

Size	Uniform	Overcoat	Price	Business	Overcoat	Price
No. 211	$15.00	$10.00	$10.00	$20.00	$15.00	$7.00
No. 432	42.50	29.00	15.00	9.00	47.50	42.00
No. 374	37.50	22.00	12.50	8.00	42.50	38.00
XL	35.00	26.00	10.50	7.00	40.00	35.00
Grey, No. 1	38.50	26.50	12.50	8.00	45.00	—
Grey, No. 2	35.00	26.00	10.50	7.00	40.00	—

OVERCOATS

Best quality Beaver Cloth	$47.50
Best quality Melton Cloth	$43.50

NOTE—Commencing April 1st Men Officers' Trimings will be charged extra, as follows:—

Lieutenant's and Captain's	$1.00
Adjutant's	$1.25
Commandant's	$1.50

Prices for Women's Tailor Made Suits for the Spring Season

Caps of All Kinds

Soldier's	$2.50
Bandsman's	$2.75
Officer's	$3.75
Staff Officer's (to rank of Staff-Captain)	$3.00

New Cap Crests—Local Officers'

Sergeant's Cap Crest	25c
Treasurer's Cap Crest	25c
Secretary's Cap Crest	25c
Sergeant's Major's Cap Crest	25c

NOTE—Expected Shortly: HEAVY PAPER COVERED CORPS' SONG BOOKS. Price.....

25c

ADDRESS ALL ORDERS TO

Trade Secretary, 203 Confederation Life Building, Winnipeg, Man.

COMMISSIONER HOWARD

(THE CHIEF OF THE STAFF)

VANCOUVER—SUNDAY, APRIL 20th
SALVATION MEETINGS ALL DAY IN PANTAGE'S THEATRE

VICTORIA—TUESDAY, APRIL 22nd

The CHIEF will be assisted by Commissioner Sowton, Brigadier McLean (Divisional Officer for British Columbia), and Officers of the British Columbia Division.

WE ARE
Looking For You

We will search for missing persons in any part of the globe, friend and as far possible, and anyone in Canada, Alaska, or the U.S.A. can contact the 202 Confederation Life Building, Winnipeg, marked graph, $2 extra.

Officers, Soldiers, Sailors, etc., can be located by looking regularly through the Missing Column, and to obtain information concerning any case, always stating name and number of same.

HENNING LUDVIG JOHANSEN. Age 24. Swedish height 5 ft. 1 in. Supposed to be with British Army in France.

MAGNUS SVANSON. Swede. Light brown hair, blue eyes. Height 5 ft. 7 in. Was known as "French Joe." Supposed to be in United States.

ALFRED LINDSTRÖM. Height 5 ft. 7 in. Light brown hair and eyes. Supposed to be in France.

EDWARD LINDSEY. Height 5 ft. 7 in. Light brown hair and eyes. Supposed to be in France.

JOHN LINDSEY. Height 5 ft. 7 in. Light brown hair and eyes. Supposed to be in France.

JOHN LINDSEY. Height 5 ft. 7 in. Light brown hair and eyes. Supposed to be in France.

JOHN LINDSEY. Height 5 ft. 7 in. Light brown hair and eyes. Supposed to be in France.

JOHN LINDSEY. Height 5 ft. 7 in. Light brown hair and eyes. Supposed to be in France.

JOHN LINDSEY. Height 5 ft. 7 in. Light brown hair and eyes. Supposed to be in France.

JOHN LINDSEY. Height 5 ft. 7 in. Light brown hair and eyes. Supposed to be in France.

JOHN LINDSEY. Height 5 ft. 7 in. Light brown hair and eyes. Supposed to be in France.

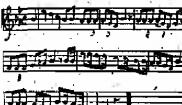

JOHN LINDSEY. Height 5 ft. 7 in. Light brown hair and eyes. Supposed to be in France.

JOHN LINDSEY. Height 5 ft. 7 in. Light brown hair and eyes. Supposed to be in France.

CHEER UP COMRADES

I know the times are somewhat hard.
The nights are dark and long,
But, never mind, the morn will come.
And with the morn a song.
For God is surely over all.
He is with us from the start,
And over us there still doth wave
The banner of His love.

(Music of Chorus)

So cheer up, Comrades,

There's nothing to worry about.
There's nothing to make us feel afraid.

There's nothing to make us doubt.

Just keep your heart up; don't despair.

And bear this song in mind.

(Words and music by Brigadier Joy:

The above song went with a swing
at the Toronto meeting.)

So do not let your courage flag,
Or yield yourself to gloom.
At midnight just assure yourself,
In twelve hours you will be won.
And if the morn be overcast,
The clouds are silver hood.
Just keep your heart up; don't despair.

And bear this song in mind.
(Words and music by Brigadier Joy:

The above song went with a swing
at the Toronto meeting.)

COMING EVENTS

COMMISSIONER SOWTON

Winnipeg IV—Sunday, April 13.
Calgary—Wednesday, April 16.
(Opening of Military Hostel)
Vancouver I—Sunday, April 20.
Victoria—Tuesday, April 22.

COLONEL TURNER

(Chief Secretary)

Moose Jaw—Sunday, April 13.
Calgary—Wednesday, April 16.
Winnipeg I—Friday, April 18.
St. James (Winnipeg)—Sunday, Military Hostel, Winnipeg—Friday,
(April 25).
Saskatoon—Sunday, April 27th.

INVESTMENTS

Officers, Soldiers, or friends having money to invest could, with great safety, invest in the Salvation Army. Loans are utilized strictly for investments in Army property and

other equally secure capital, and a liberal

rate of interest is paid, and, if necessary, of the whole or part of the loan, can be conveniently arranged without trouble or difficulty

at any time. Names of investors are not communicated to any one.

A communication addressed to Commissioner Sowton, 202 Confederation Life

Building, Winnipeg, will receive best attention. For further information will be gladly given.

OUR QUESTION BOX

If you are in doubt or difficulty in regard to spiritual matters, write to the Editor of "The War Cry," Albert

Street, Toronto, Ont. We are here to help you. We shall be pleased to do our best to obtain for any of our readers any information they may need. Write now!

*****

ARE OPEN TO ALL SERVICE MEN

ACTIVE OR RETURNED—IN OR OUT OF UNIFORM

USE OF REST, CORRESPONDENCE, and LOUNGE ROOMS FREE

CHRIST THE HOPE OF ALL THE WORLD

THE WAR CRY

EASTER NUMBER TORONTO APRIL 19th 1919

INVESTMENTS

Officers, Soldiers, or friends having money to invest could, with great safety, invest in the

Salvation Army.

Loans are utilized strictly for investments in Army property and

other equally secure capital, and a liberal

rate of interest is paid, and, if necessary, of the

whole or part of the loan, can be conveniently arranged without trouble or difficulty

at any time. Names of investors are not communicated to any one.

A communication addressed to Commissioner Sowton, 202 Confederation Life

Building, Winnipeg, will receive best

attention. For further information will be gladly given.

*****

I AM THE RESURRECTION AND THE LIFE

PRICE FIVE CENTS